NEWS FROM THE CITY OF WAYNE

State honors Wayne-Westland adult education director

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

A member of the Wayne-Westland School District's staff was named as the recipient of a prestigious honor awarded by the State of Michigan.

Wayne-Westland school officials announced this week that the Michigan Association of Community and Adult Education (MACAE) Staff Member of the Year award for the State of Michigan has been awarded to Michael Deeg.

Deeg is the director of the Adult Education for the Wayne-

Westland schools.

In nominating Deeg, Charlotte Sherman, assistant superintendent for general administration in the Wayne-Westland schools, noted that, "Michael Deeg exemplifies the best in adult and community education. She is the director of the Tinkham Adult Education Center in Wayne Westland Community Schools. She quietly and efficiently supervises a multitude of programs.

"It is rare to find an administrator with strong managerial skills who also shines in the area of student relations. Each year at the graduation ceremony, the largest round of applause is always for Mickey. She encourages every student to strive for success. She has been a cheerleader for adult education her entire professional life."

As the school year nears its completion, Wayne-Westland will also be saying "good-bye" to Deeg. She plans to retire after the current school year.

The Wayne-Westland School District and its board of education also plan to honor Michael Deeg at the board's meeting scheduled for June 12.

Wayne law enforcement officer to join DEA Team

Stressing the importance of the training that would be provided by the federal government, Wayne Police Chief Mike Sumeracki informed mayor and council Tuesday night of plans to reassign an officer to the Drug Enforcement Administration.

"We have been offered an opportunity to assign an officer to the DEA," Sumeracki announced. "This opportunity has several benefits to the city."

Sumeracki pointed out the officer will gain valuable training from his experience with the DEA and that training would be generally helpful to the department as a whole and specifically to the officer involved.

The police chief also noted that the "limited number of special assignments in small police agencies, such as Wayne, can lead to officer burnout and poor morale."

"This assignment will provide another interest for officers to pursue."

If accepted in the DEA, the city would receive 7 percent of confiscated asset forfeitures which, alone, would cover the officer's salary and benefits, according to Sumeracki.

Sumeracki said if mayor and council agreed, the department would hire an additional officer to fill the vacancy created as a result of the reassignment. There would be no loss of personnel in the department.

"I am requesting City Council's approval to enter into a two-year contract to assign an officer to the DEA Unit at the Wayne County Metropolitan Airport," Sumeracki concluded.

Mayor Robert Dickerson said he felt the chief's proposal had merits and supported it. With Mayor Pro Tem Pam Dobrowolski excused from the meeting, the council voted 6-0 in favor of Sumeracki's request.

Seniors offered File of Life

During a medical emergency, there usually is little time to ask questions and get answers from a person who is in need of help.

A 'File of Life' may help identify a victim's medical history, and Wayne's Senior Services Division is offering seniors an opportunity to receive a card that identifies any medical problems from the service division.

"The File of Life is a mini-medical history card that fits in a magnetized pocket which is placed on the front of a refrigerator," said Nancy Wojewski-Noel, the director of the Wayne Senior Activity Center. "The benefit of this program is that it allows easy access to potentially life-saving information. For our seniors, this means faster treatment and therefore peace of mind."

Noel also said that seniors will receive a mini-pocket with a medical card that they can carry with them in case of an emergency.

The program is being offered free to Wayne seniors through the generosity of the Wayne Police.

NEWS FROM THE CITY OF INKSTER

32nd Memorial Day Parade set for Monday

Inkster remembers the fallen of all wars

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

In a tradition that was first observed after the end of the Civil War in 1865, the residents of the City of Inkster on Monday will pause to honor the fallen heroes of all wars.

Inkster will observe Memorial Day - 2001 for the 32nd consecutive year with a parade that recalls and remembers the heroism of those who paid with their lives on the battlefields of the world to protect freedom and liberty.

On Monday, at noon, the bugler's call will summon more than 60 units of marchers who represent the military, law enforcement, the elected, the clubs and services, the schools and the people of this nation to honor and pay tribute to the fallen heroes.

The parade begins at noon. The marching units will gather at the Cherry Hill Plaza, Cherry Hill and Inkster Road, march southbound on Inkster Road, to the City Hall Complex where Mayor Hilliard Hampton, Jr., and City Council members will greet them on behalf of the city.

Charlie Davis is the Honorary Parade Marshall.

Mr. Davis, a Detroit resident, was a member of the Charles H. Hall Post 9715 of Detroit. A few years ago, the Detroit Post dismantled and merged with the Inkster Post 9040. Davis has enjoyed serving with the comrades of the Inkster Post.

Born in Kentucky, married, and with one daughter and two grandchildren who live in Ohio, Davis served in the U. S. Navy and fought in the South Pacific during World War II.

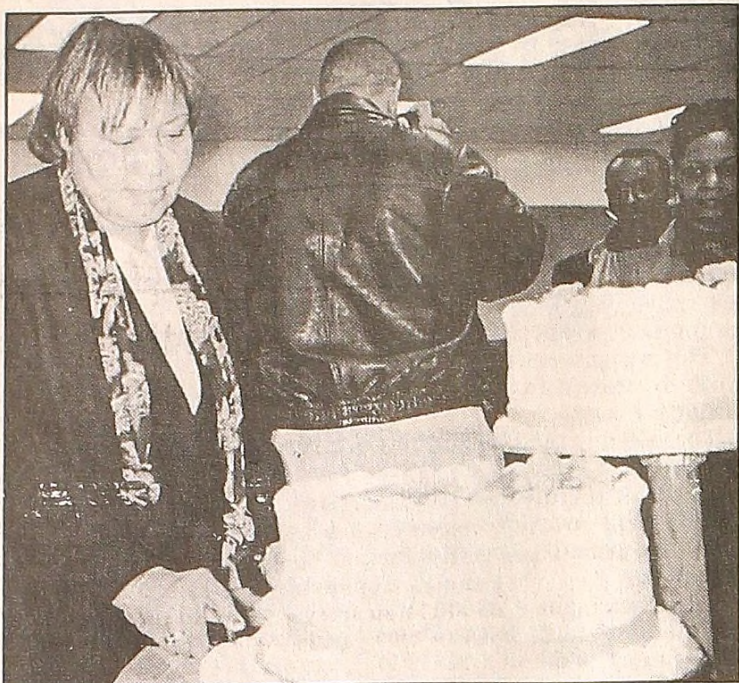

The theme for the 2001 Inkster

Memorial Day Parade is They Fought With Courage and Honor.

Danesha Latham, the author of the theme and winner of the annual city-sponsored theme contest, will be introduced to the audience by Mayor Hampton, who will also present the talented author with a gift.

There will also be awards presented for "Best Appearance of a Musical Group"; "Best Appearance of a Non-Musical Group"; "Best Theme Float" and "Most Original Float".

The Master of Ceremony is Jerry Carnaghi; the Rev. George Johnson will offer the Invocation.

When Mary Stewart (above) was employed by Danny's Super Market on Michigan Avenue, employees, patrons and all admired and loved the gregarious worker. Mary earned the title of "nicest clerk" during her tenure at the popular grocery store which closed some time ago. The extent of the love for Stewart was recently evident when loved ones and friends organized a surprise birthday party hosted by her husband, Robert, and staged at the Booker T. Dozier Recreation Center in Inkster. Eleven sisters and brothers also traveled from two cities in Georgia, Atlanta and Fitzgerald, to share in the occasion. Former customers, neighbors, and longtime friends were present. It also wasn't an easy task to pull Mary away to prepare for a wedding, however, the ruse worked and she was indeed surprised. The guests enjoyed a good time and a good meal, and everyone wished her a Happy, Happy, Birthday. Photo by Theola Jones.

Will there be a third school board candidate?

Will there be a third Inkster School Board candidate?

That question may be answered at 6 p.m. on June 4 when the Inkster Coalition for Children holds its annual "Meet the Candidate" program.

With two candidates - James L. Richardson, III, and Lisa Perry - on the June 11 ballot, the question whether incumbent Sandra Motley-Cook will seek reelection is being debated.

Cook apparently filed a nominating petition that lacked the qualifying number of signatures, and the petition apparently was ruled invalid by the school district's election officials. She could possibly wage a campaign as a write-in for one of the two four-year terms available on the seven-seat school board.

Priscilla Cook, no relation to Motley-Cook, has announced that she will not seek her seat.

The "Meet the Candidate" program will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Floyd Simmons Multipurpose Building, located on Carlyle Ave., across from the Baylor-Woodson Administration Building.

Local woman honored by AAA

Karen Yelder is in a class of her own.

Yelder was recently honored by AAA of Michigan for her outstanding sales and customer service - the only woman to be so honored for her sales and customer service performance for the year 2000.

Yelder, daughter of retired Inkster Deputy Police Chief Robert Pendergrass and wife, Erma, was awarded the coveted President's Council Award for her accomplishment.

Yelder received a special

plaque in recognition of her achievement. The plaque was presented to her, and other winners, by AAA CEO Charles Podowski.

The auto club's CEO presented the awards to 16 agents out of more than 400 insurance associations.

Hammons inducted into honors society

A local resident was recently inducted into an international nursing honors society.

Officials at the Georgia Baptist College of Nursing Mercer University this week announced that Taris Hammons of Inkster was inducted into Pi Gamma Chapter of Sigma Theta Tau International.

Sigma Theta Tau International is the honors society for nurses and recognizes scholarship, leadership, and professionalism.

Hammons graduated from Georgia Baptist College of Nursing in May with a baccalaureate degree in nursing.

Explorers bring home first place honors

The Romulus Police Explorers took home the first place medal in the category of crime scene investigation at statewide competition held in Alpena a couple of weeks ago.

Overall, the Romulus explorers placed fifteenth out of twenty-six competing teams.

The explorers were judged in five separate categories; felony traffic stop, building searches, domestic violence intervention, traffic accident investigation and the aforementioned crime scene search. The first place trophy was won by a team from Bay City.

This is the first time the Romulus Explorers have entered the competition. Group members include Jason Orme, Tiara Adams, Justin Benci, Jason Gibson, Joseph Miller, Christine Milligan, and Lynette Bailey.

Officer Jeff Lazarski, the Romulus Post advisor said, "Given the maturity level and intelligence of the current Romulus Explorers, I have no doubt we will take home the Governor's Cup (first place) next year."

The Romulus Police Explorers consists of teens at least fourteen years old who have an interest in pursuing a career in law enforcement.

The Romulus Police Explorers are the only first-time participants ever to win a first place medal in statewide competition.

Throw the book at Gordon

The verdict is in and jurors rightfully convicted Belleville teen Dustin Gordon of second degree murder in the shooting death of his 12-year-old sister, Crystal.

I hope Judge Sean Cox has the guts to "throw the book" at this misguided and very dangerous 18-year-old.

For those of you who haven't been following the story in the BELLEVILLE ENTERPRISE, Gordon shot his sister in the forehead last August 15 while watching violent movies in his bedroom.

Gordon, who was well-known in Belleville as a violent kid who carried a gun and abused his kid sister was a "ticking time bomb" waiting to explode. He forced his sister to commit sex acts on his friends, and when she didn't comply he brutally beat her. Teen after teen took the witness stand in a five day trial telling one unbelievable tale after another about the goings-on at the Gordon household.

It paints a pretty ugly picture of the teen scene in our area. If you believe these accounts, violence, drugs and sex were a "way of life" with these teens. It is hard for me to comprehend teenagers with guns, but it is beyond belief when I hear about a 12-year-old child administering oral sex to numerous guys—many of whom paid her brother for the service.

Is this 20th century Thailand or 21st century Belleville? This certainly can't be the norm, or is it?

Equally disturbing is the fact that so many teenagers knew about Dustin's gun and his violent behavior towards his sister. Yet, not one, ever went to a mother, father, teacher, counselor or any adult to pass on the information.

Dustin and his friends were allowed to live in this world where using a gun was a source of pride and selling his sister for sex was cool. Poor Crystal, the victim in this world, was abused to no end, and for what ever reason, her friends failed to get her help.

Most disturbing, however, is that Crystal's parents, weren't aware of their son's delinquency. He killed his sister while his father was home. His mother will probably face charges for allegedly tampering with witnesses in an effort to persuade them to testify in favor of Dustin.

Talk about dysfunctional families — the Gordon's seem to take top honors. Brother kills sister, sister is performing sex acts at age 12, mother attempts to tamper with witnesses, and father is home while daughter is murdered.

I've never heard of a better "movie made for television" plot. This one, however, is frighteningly true and happened in your "own backyard."

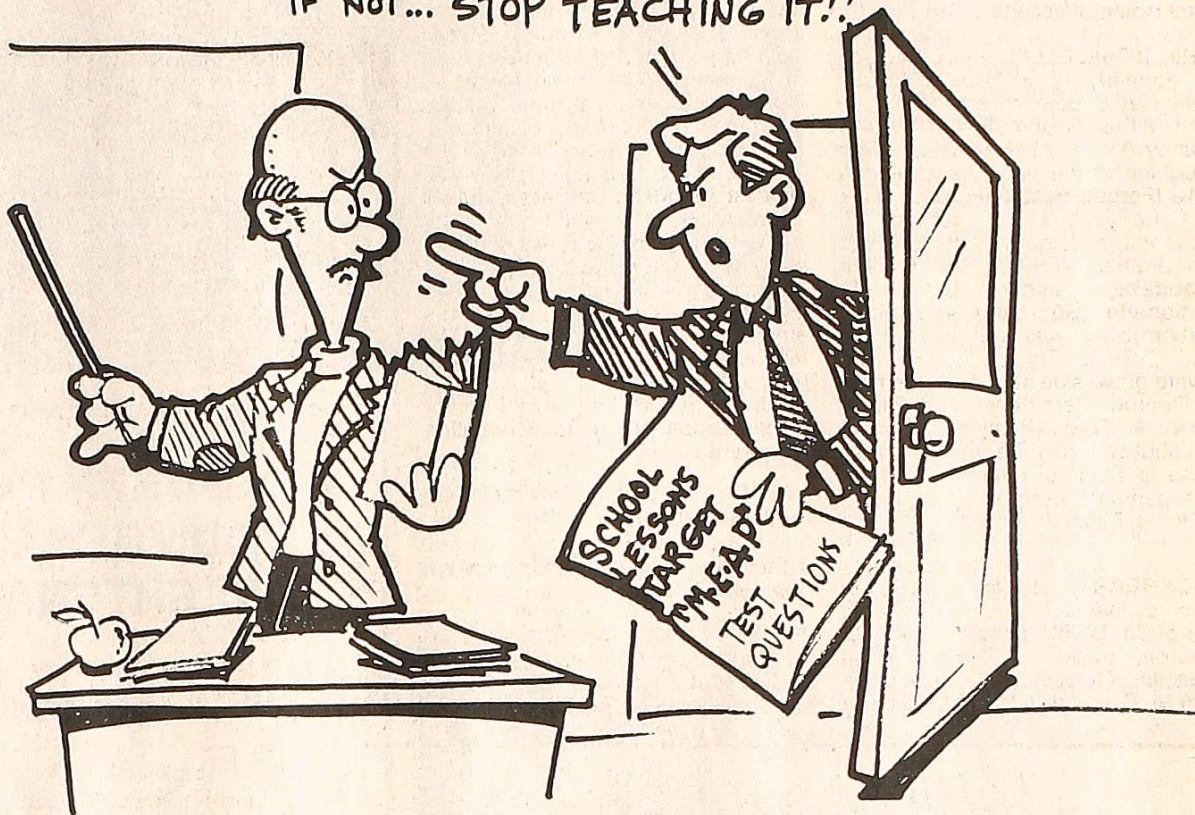

I guess the old adage, it's 8 p.m., do you know where your child is at, applies more than ever these days. Unsupervised teenagers can get into a whole lotta trouble. As mothers and fathers we have to do a better job communicating with our children. Maybe if the Gordon's had talked more with Dustin, Crystal would still be alive.

Bored teens need wave pool

I lived most of my adult life in Waterford, a township with two enterprises that would give many Canton residents the heebie-jeebies — an airport and a water park.

Not only did I survive both menaces without mishap or injury, but I remember them fondly.

Take the Pontiac-Oakland County Airport, a commercial airport sandwiched between M-59 and Williams Lake. My family frequented Cafe Max, the airport eatery. Dining runway-side, we watched planes land while we waited for our pizza to be served.

Since I was mesmerized by taxing planes, takeoffs and landings, I wonder what made me so different than my Canton neighbors, who seem to dislike airports in their backyards.

The difference became apparent when Mettetal Airport asked the Canton Township Board for permission to shift its runway a few hundred feet to bring the runway up to Federal Aviation Agency safety standards. The request prompted hundreds of neighbors to scream bloody murder.

The shift was unsafe, they said. It would lead to an expansion of the airport. It would make a fool out of the township, who had earlier been tricked by the state into believing that the airport was up to FAA specs.

It's true that in the past the state had played fast and loose with the truth about Mettetal's failure to meet safety regulations. It may or may not be true that the state had ulterior motives for shifting the runway. Yet I can't believe that nobody pointed out that small airports can be fun and, in a sprawling township, add some variety to the roadside strips, fry pits, light industrial huts, and public school campuses.

While the Pontiac-Oakland County Airport was not an ongoing sideshow, it was an occasional one. Every summer, it welcomed residents to an all-day open house — a day of hot dogs, beer, flights, and tower tours. On the runway, it was if the Yankee Air Force Museum had come to life. Pilots welcomed families into military planes.

On Sundays, pilots and airborne clubs would fly in for a buffet brunch at the Cafe Max.

During happy hour, many North Oakland County residents would stop by for a quick drink. At night, they'd come back for some companionship or action.

During warm weather months, beach volleyball courts were set up.

Besides providing entertainment, the airport generated business — an airport park and at least one strip, home of the first Shark Club, which spilled over into Canton.

Because the Pontiac-Oakland County Airport was in the district of former Congressman Bob Carr, an airport booster, it became an international airport with customs inspectors. That not only stimulated the local economy, but it enticed a lot of jet setters to move near the airport. It certainly brought in a lot of big spenders and their American Express cards.

While I know that airports aren't everybody's cup of tea, and that there are many legitimate reasons to oppose or avoid them, I was struck by how one-sided the Mettetal debate was.

I see a similar MO in the debate about the Splash Factory, an $8 million water park proposed by Supervisor Tom Yack for property near Ford and Ridge roads. Only the negative side of the proposal is being discussed, when I know from my Waterford experience that there are two sides to the issue.

Waterford had a water park. As a waterfront homeowner who lived for his water toys, I never dipped in the park's wave pool. But as a reporter for the Waterford Reminder (part of MCN owner Mike Wilcox's first newspaper chain), I often visited the park on assignment.

What I saw were hundreds of active adolescents and teenagers. What I heard, above the rush of the waves, was the roar of a happy crowd, emerged half in artificial surf, half in honest-to-goodness sunlight.

An old lake-dweller, perhaps I am too sentimental about sun and water. But there must be something to it. Half of Americans live near fresh or salt water, our biggest cities being New York and Los Angeles; our favorite vacation spots being Florida or Hawaii.

If it were up to me, I would fly all our teenagers go to Waikiki for the summer from Mettetal Airport. But I can't afford it. So why not do the best practical thing and build a water park? With a $3.5 million Wayne County grant in hand, Canton can afford it.

What Canton cannot due is shortchange its sons and daughters. Sure there are great soccer leagues, a few neighborhood skating parks, and a novel Frisbee golf course, but not enough. Every time we do a story on Canton's teen scene, teens complain about not having enough to do in the township.

But before the township can address the complaints, it must listen to them. During the water park debate, teens were ignored. Instead, the board discussed adult problems — noise, traffic, and property values.

It's listening time.

What could go wrong next?

School test fiasco, contract irregularities, conflicts of interest, poisoning of the rivers and lakes, government land grabs of private property, what is going on?

In a recent public embarrassment, the Michigan Board of Education has had to back off from test results because the results first reported are politically unacceptable. This has left us to wonder is the testing improper or are the students not being taught what they need to know. On top of this, we now hear that the large companies that prepare and grade the tests had a glitch in their computer software. Thousands of students across the country (including Michigan) are being sent to summer school on the basis of test scores that are now admitted to be erroneous. The superintendent in New York City even lost his job over reading scores that were wrong.

The FBI is now investigating the City of Detroit, Wayne County and several other communities in the area for contract irregularities involving blatant conflicts of interest.

Over the weekend, a Channel 7 report documented the environmental damage caused by the

Medium Rare

Jim Rarey

Metro (Wayne County) airport including the dying of fish from the chemicals dumped into the sewers by the airport. This has been going on for years in the City of Romulus, which completely surrounds the airport. What has the city done about it? Nothing, but complain about the odor. Instead, urged on by RECAP, it has spent well over a million dollars in court trying to stop an injection well certified as safe by the EPA and MDEQ. The county and the waste treatment company that was supposed to correct the problem are finally going to be fined by MDEQ.

Meanwhile, the county is running roughshod over private property owners condemning property to be used in its Pinnacle project for "high tech" economic development. City officials in Romulus and Huron Township, who may become partners with the county, are conducting contacts with the county under a news blackout.

The county expects to profit by millions of dollars when the properties are resold or leased to private companies.

In Huron Township, the township supervisor John Mitchell refuses to tell even his board members what is going on. Under an "ethics" ordinance recently passed (over Mitchell's opposition), he should have nothing to do with negotiations for the project. Mitchell owns property that will be purchased for the project (through condemnation said to have been requested by Mitchell) for several million dollars.

Now there is a bill working its way through the Michigan Legislature that would legitimize the process of taking private property to turn over to developers. It would approve condemnation of private property as "blighting" if the local government wants it for a different use.

And where is the public outcry as all of this unfolds? Silence, except for a few activists who have engineered successful recall elections in the area. None of the recalls involved the subjects covered above.

It's politics as usual.

Friends, family celebrate Hays' 60th

To the editor:

More than 175 friends, family relatives, and former high school classmates helped to celebrate the 60th anniversary of Frederick W. and Helen E. Hay on Saturday, March 24, at the Romulus Progressive Hall. This memorable occasion was coordinated by their four children: Pearl Varner, Margie Baird, Fred Hay Jr., and Carla Cox. Both Fred and Helen have been lifelong residents of Romulus and have lived at their present farm home at 14170 Huron River Drive in Romulus, Michigan, since their first nuptial vows back in March 29, 1941.

Evening festivities included a brief introductory ceremony. A special highlight was a beautiful and difficult marimba solo entitled, "Flight of the Bumblebee." It was performed by the couple's fifteen-year-old grandson, William Frederick Cox, of Belleville. Kathleen Hay, daughter-in-law of Helen and Fred, gave the invocation. Family and guests were then invited to a delicious buffet dinner that included Swiss steak, chicken, mostaccioli, a selection of salads, and vegetables, desserts, and a tiered "anniversary" cake. Following the meal, everyone was invited to view a large display of memorabilia including photographs, awards, and video tapes depicting Fred and Helen's family life during the past six decades. Live dance music was provided by the talented Wiegenka brothers, known as "The Avalons." This band was the same group that played at the couples' actual wedding, as well as their 50th Anniversary celebration just ten years ago. Band members were high school classmates of Fred and Helen.

Two of the original attendants from Fred and Helen's wedding are alive and well and are local Romulus residents. They include Mercedes (Hay) Wagner, a favorite cousin of the groom and bridesmaid, and Pearl M. Morris, sister of Helen and pianist who played the couples' wedding march. Another guest of distinction was Mrs. Melba Herzog of Lakeview, Michigan. At age 94, she was the oldest guest present, as well as the wife of the late Glenn W. Herzog, former Superintendent of the Romulus Public Schools. Herzog dedicated 20 years of his life in the early development of our fine school system. Mrs. Herzog herself was an early principal and teacher at the Romulus High School. The Herzog family resided in the community until 1945.

Fred and Helen hope to celebrate their 65th Anniversary with family and friends in the near future! Congratulations and best of wishes to the happy couple.

Sincerely,
Helen Hay

Consumer Annual Report on Water Quality

Introduction

In compliance with the Federal Safe Drinking Water Act Amendments, the City of Inkster Water Department is providing its customers with the 2000 annual report on water quality. This report explains where your water comes from, what it contains, and how it compares to Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) and State standards. Our constant goal is to provide you with a safe and dependable supply of drinking water.

What is the Source of My Water?

The City of Inkster purchases water wholesale from the City of Detroit. Two (2) of the five (5) Detroit water treatment plants supply water to the City of Inkster.

Specifically:

- Springwells Water Treatment Plant, located at Warren Road and Springwells, in the City of Detroit. This plant draws its raw surface water from the Belle Isle intakes on the East end of the island. This site is near the juncture of Lake St. Clair and the mouth of the Detroit River.
- Southwest Water Treatment Plant, located on Moran Road in Allen Park, draws its raw surface water from the Detroit River near Fighting Island. The actual intake lies east of the International boundary line between Canada and the United States.

Note: Data is from various maps and drawings held by (DWDS) Detroit Water and Sewer Department.

Opportunities For Public Participation

- The regular scheduled council meetings are the first and third Monday of each month. There are also public hearing and meetings open to the public. To confirm dates and times or for information on other activities, please contact the City Clerk's Office at (313) 563-9781.

Do I Need to Take Special Precautions?

- Some people may be more vulnerable to contaminants in drinking water than is the general population. Immunocompromised persons such as persons with cancer undergoing chemotherapy, persons who have undergone organ transplants, people with HIV/AIDS or other immune system disorders, some elderly, and infants can be particularly at risk from infections. These people should seek advice about drinking water from their health care providers. EPA and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) guidelines on appropriate means to lessen the risk of infection by Cryptosporidium and other microbial contaminants are available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800) 426-4791.

Why are There Contaminants in My Water?

- Drinking water, including bottled water, may reasonably be expected to contain at least small amounts of some contaminants. The presence of contaminants does not necessarily indicate that water poses a health risk. More information about contaminants and potential health effects can be obtained by calling the Environmental Protection Agency's Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800) 426-4791.

The sources of drinking water (both tap and bottle water) include rivers, lakes, streams, ponds, reservoirs, springs, and wells. As water travels over the surface of the land or through the ground, it dissolves naturally-occurring mineral and, in some cases, radioactive material, and can pick up substances resulting from the presence of animals or from human activity.

Contaminants that may be present in source water before we treat it include:

- Microbial contaminants, such as viruses and bacteria, which may come from sewage treatment plants, septic systems, agricultural livestock operations, and wildlife.

- Inorganic contaminants, such as salts and metals, which can be naturally occurring or result from urban stormwater runoff, industrial or domestic wastewater discharges, oil and gas production, mining or farming.

- Pesticides and herbicides, which may come from a variety of sources such as agriculture, urban stormwater runoff, and residential uses.

- Organic chemical contaminants, including synthetic and volatile organics, which are by-products of industrial processes and petroleum production, and can also come from gas stations, urban stormwater runoff, and septic systems.

- Radioactive contaminants, which can be naturally occurring or be the result of oil and gas production and mining activities.

In order to ensure that tap water is safe to drink, EPA prescribes regulations, which limit the amount of certain contaminants in water provided by public water systems. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) regulations establish limits for contaminants in bottled water, which must provide the same protection for public health.

Is our Water System Meeting Other Rules That Govern Our Operations?

- The City of Inkster is currently in Compliance with State and Federal requirements regarding water quality.

Water Quality Data Table

- The water quality data table on pages 5 - 7 list all the contaminants that were detected during monitoring for the 1999 calendar year. The presence of these contaminants in the water, does not necessarily indicate that the water poses a health risk. Definitions of the terms and abbreviations used in the table are listed below.

Key to Detected Contaminants Tables
Symbol	Abbreviation for	Definition/Explanation
MCLG	Maximum Contaminant Level Goal	The level of contaminant in drinking water below which there is no known or expected risk to health.
MCL	Maximum Contaminant Level	The highest level of a contaminant that is allowed in drinking water. MCLs are set as close to the MCLGs as feasible using the best available treatment technology.
ppb	Parts per billion (one in one billion)	The ppb is equivalent to micrograms per liter. A microgram = 1/1000 milligram.
ppm	Parts per million (one in one million)	The ppm is equivalent to milligrams per liter. A milligram = 1/1000 gram.
NTU	Nephelometric Turbidity Units	Measures the cloudiness of water.
TT	Treatment Technique	A required process intended to reduce the level of a contaminant in drinking water.
AL	Action Level	The concentration of a contaminant, which, if exceeded, triggers treatment or other requirements which a water system must follow.
n/a	Not applicable

Turbidity is a measure of the cloudiness of water. We monitor it because it is a good indicator of the effectiveness of our filtration system. For turbidity levels 5 NTU or above a treatment technique (TT) is required.

Information About Lead

Lead in drinking water is rarely the sole cause of lead poisoning, but it can add to a person's total lead exposure. All potential sources of lead in the household should be identified and removed, replaced or reduced.

Infants and young children are typically more vulnerable to lead in drinking water than the general population. It is possible that lead levels at your home may be higher than at other homes in the community as a result of materials used in your home's plumbing. If you are concerned about elevated lead levels in your home's water, you may wish to have your water tested and flush your tap for 30 seconds to 2 minutes before using tap water. Additional information is available from the Safe Drinking Water Hotline (800) 426-4791.

Cryptosporidium

Cryptosporidium is a disease-causing parasite that lives in the intestinal tract of many animals including dogs and cats. Symptoms of infection include diarrhea, abdominal cramps, headaches, nausea and vomiting. The disease is typically spread through contact with feces of an infected animal or person and consuming contaminated food or water. Cryptosporidium can be introduced into bodies of water by way of surface water runoff containing animal waste, and sewage discharge. The Detroit Water and Sewerage Department has been testing for Cryptosporidium since 1994 and has not detected it in any of there source water supplies.

Care about the American flag

To the editor:

Boy how time flies, it's been two weeks since I wrote the first letter regarding American Rags (flags) that were being flown over businesses located in Westland and Wayne. I personally want to express my thanks to Councilwoman Eileen DeHart, who made this situation known at a recent city council meeting, and to the businesses that have already taken the appropriate steps to rectify this situation! Most are now flying a brand new Rew, White and Blue. It doesn't cost that much to be correct.

However, there is still one business in Westland that clearly does not care about the "American Flag" that symbolizes Freedom, or about the thousands of men and women that sacrificed, fought and died to maintain and protect the free enterprise system. It is apparent that this business owner enjoys the fruits, the financial gains from the sweat and toil of others.

One would think that they would be proud of Old Glory, or is our flag just a prop to make people in our community think this establishment is patriotic and to bring in the cash. I won't mention the name of the business, but it's located on the southeast corner of Marquette and Wayne roads.

If you get a chance to stop by to say hello and check out this tattered torn rag they are flying.

Considering that Wayne Road to Westland City Hall will be the parade route this year, I personally take offense to the lack of respect that this business owner is exhibiting towards veterans.

When I stopped by this business to talk to the owner about this situation, I was scoffed at and told that if I would provide the funds, they would replace the flag. And, with that I walked out; but before I departed, I explained that it would be in their best interest to do the right thing before parade day and show the proper respect to all that have earned it. Especially toward those that have shed their blood on the battlefield to protect and ensure their freedom. In exchange, this establishment chooses to be indignant and defiant.

The argument of one's constitutional rights to burn, spit on, and fly this flag anyway they wish might come into play, very disgraceful, distasteful — but clearly not illegal. I find it despicable that any individual would dishonor the highest symbol of our people and country in this manner.

But that's what "freedom" is all about. We may not always agree with what is written, said or the ideology of others, but these rights and freedoms of speech and personal expression have been bought, paid for and guaranteed by "Americans" who were willing to stand up and be counted. Soon I'll be exercising my Constitutional rights by expressing my views, and making it known to the other 250,000 veterans in Wayne County anyway I can.

This business clearly does not respect Old Glory.

I'm not telling anyone where to shop for your needs, it's a free country.

Let your conscience be your guide.

The longer they choose to fly this rag, the more my lips shall flap and pen shall write.

Your best bet — don't forget to honor our Vets.

God Bless America,

Cancer Society thanks Canton

To the editor:

On May 19, well over 1,000 participants gathered at beautiful Heritage Park in Canton to combat one of the biggest health issues facing Americans today, cancer. Participants did their part by forming teams, raising funds, and walking for 24 hours in the third annual American Cancer Society Relay For Life held in Canton. Since the inception of Relay For Life in 1985, more than one half billion dollars has been raised, nationwide, for the fight against cancer!

This year, the Relay For Life in Canton raised a phenomenal

$141,000, which will be spent by the American Cancer Society on research and fulfilling the needs of local cancer patients and their families. Additionally, the money will aid in our ongoing efforts to educate the public of the lifesaving benefits of early detection.

The American Cancer Society would like to extend its sincere appreciation to the individuals, teams, and companies who participated and made the Relay For Life a tremendous success. Specifically, we would like to thank Heritage Park for the wonderful site for the relay and Tom Yack for his continued support of the event. The overwhelming support put forth by the sponsors, team captains, participants, and especially, the planning committee, certainly showcases the determination of the community to help end cancer.

To the greater community of Canton, the American Cancer Society extends its heartfelt appreciation and we look forward to continuing our relationship throughout the year.

Sincerely,
Mary Partin

Businesses thanked for M.E.A.P. awards

To the editor:

The Wayne Memorial High School staff and students would like to thank the following businesses for their generous gifts. The Wayne Dairy Queen, the Palmer-Wayne Road McDonald's, and the Central City Red Robin are valued supporters of Wayne Memorial High School.

The donations from these establishments were used to reward Students for their perfect attendance during the M.E.A.P. testing. Their contribution was an important incentive for our students.

The assistance of the parents and establishments such as these enable this school to accomplish far more than it otherwise could. The businesses that contributed are especially valuable in bringing the schools and community together. On behalf of the parents, students and administration, I would like to thank you again.

Respectfully,
Heidi Schmabel

'A perfect week'

Rutkowski's shutout over Canton sparks Glenn's 3 big Lakes victories

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

John Glenn sophomore righthander Kyle Rutkowski turned in a five-hit pitching performance that jolted Plymouth-Canton, 2-0, in a Western Lakes Divisional baseball game.

Rutkowski's victory was sandwiched between two other impressive Glenn Lakes Division wins last week.

On Monday, Coach Todd Duffield's Rockets posted a 5-4 victory over a highly-touted Livonia Stevenson. Then, on Friday, the Rockets kept their momentum going by edging North Farmington, 4-3, behind junior Craig Lewis's six-hit pitching.

Unfortunately, the three Lakes' victories were overshadowed by back-to-back, out-of-conference losses to two Taylor teams: Taylor Kennedy broke open a close game in the bottom of the fourth to turn back the Westlanders, 11-1. Later that afternoon, Glenn also lost to Taylor Truman, 4-0.

In the pitcher's duel between Rutkowski and Canton's Matt Staley, both hurlers were flawless until the fourth. In the bottom of that inning, Staley gave up a walk to Joe Cichowski, who stole second and scored when Ricky Verville came through with a base hit.

However, Verville was erased from the base paths when he attempted to reach home on Brandon Aljouny's base hit. Staley then issued Dave Mijal a walk, and Aljouny scored what proved to be the winning run when Josh Day drilled a single into right field.

Staley, who completed the game, gave up only three hits, struck out two and also walked an equal number.

In posting his first shutout of the current campaign, Rutkowski chalked up seven strikeouts, walked none and was tagged for five hits.

Aljouny padded his personal record to 6-1 on the year after holding off Stevenson's Spartans, 5-4. He tossed a seven-hitter, fanned eight and walked two for the win.

Stevenson started Tim Oliver, who was relieved by Danny Wilson in the sixth with the score tied at three-all. Wilson was charged with the loss.

The Rockets staged a two-run rally in the sixth thanks to Jeff Koslowski's single, a walk to Julian Fraser, and a Rutkowski's mishandled bunt that loaded the bases.

Cichowski's fielder's choice scored the tie-breaker. A double-steal with Fraser safely sliding across home plate gave the Rockets the insurance run.

On Friday, Lewis humbled North Farmington, 4-3, as he notched 10 strikeouts, walked three in a six-hit pitching performance.

Lewis pitched himself out of trouble in the last of the seventh when North scored two times and had the tying run on second. In that last inning, Lewis gave up a one-out walk, a triple, a single for the second run, but then collected his second and third outs on a flyout and strikeout.

The Westlanders scored what proved to be their winning run in the sixth with two-away. Mike Grant hammered a game-winning two-run double with Rutkowski, who had singled, and Will Massey aboard.

In the race for the Western Lakes Conference championship, Farmington appears to have a lock on the Lakes Division title, while Farmington Hills Harrison stands atop of the Western Division.

The two are scheduled to meet to decide the 2001 conference champion.

Oh, Brothers it wasn't his week

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Oh, brothers, it just wasn't varsity baseball Coach Keith Brothers' week.

Not only did the Monday rains wipe clean a big 5-2 lead against Romulus' perennial thorn, River Rouge, but Brothers also saw a 7-1 lead against Mega-Gold Division leader Crestwood erased in a key conference game that the Dearborn Heights ball club finally won, 10-7.

"We were put out of the title race last week, so we're more spoilers than anything else," Brothers explained. "But we wanted that Crestwood game so badly because they are the league leaders and we wanted to show them we could play with them."

Romulus ran out of pitchers in the stretch against the Chargers who rallied in the last inning to score seven runs.

On Monday, Brothers sent Alan Brohl up against the Panthers of Rouge and Brohl responded by throwing a two-hitter for three innings. Then, the skies opened up and the rains came and that was the end of the game.

It just wasn't in the books for the Eagles.

"I guess we are going to have to reschedule this one, and I don't know if we are going to pick up where we left off."

In other games involving local teams, Plymouth-Canton and coach Scott Dickie bounced back from a crucial loss to Westland John Glenn (See Related Story on this page) to sweep a doubleheader from natural rival, Plymouth-Canton.

Canton's Jon Loos led the assault on Rocks' pitching in the opener as he carved out three hits, including a two-run double to spark the winners. Matt Staley fanned seven in chalking up the victory.

In the nightcap, Canton exploded for a 11-5 victory as Joe Kondratek and Jay Sofen combined for six of the Chiefs' 10 hits. Sofen went three for four, while Kondratek drilled a single and double in four appearances at the plate. He also collected two runs batted in.

Romulus High made sports history in the area this spring when school officials announced that they were fielding a Lacrosse team. Charged with the challenge of competing in the rough sport and fielding the team is coach Jason Kahler. Team members include Jason Griggs (kneeling, from left), Brandon Malot, Tom Drayton, Chris Anderson and Jeremy Hendricks; the second row consists of Robert Rhinehart, Dan Patterson, Charles Smith, Andrew Blankenship and Larry Brown.

Romulus' experiment with Lacrosse pays off

It started with a simple, one sentence, question by a inquisitive student, that went something like this: What's that?

And the answer provided by Jason Kahler to that question made sports history at Romulus High School and in the area. It put in motion the organizing of the first high school Lacrosse team at the high school and in the area.

"I had opened up my car trunk, and this student spotted a stick that had this net attached to it, and he asked me about it," said Kahler. "I told him that it is a stick used in the sport and game of Lacrosse."

Kahler said the student never heard of Lacrosse and asked more questions. Then he asked why the high school didn't have a team and whether one could be organized, and I replied: "I don't know why not."

And that's how Lacrosse came to the City of Romulus, and to Romulus High School.

"It's a tough sport that, like most others, requires training, physical and mental stamina and discipline," Kahler added.

When the message got out that Kahler was putting together a team some 25 prospects showed up for the organizational meeting not knowing what to find or expect. The regulation field is 60-yards wide and 110-yards long. At each end there is a 6 feet by 6 feet goal, the prime target of the players.

Players score by advancing the ball, maneuvering past a maze of defenders, using the netted sticks, then hopefully firing it past the goalie. Much like the game of soccer, where players use feet, body and soul to advance the ball toward the goal, in Lacrosse players twirl and catch the ball in the nets at the end of six-foot sticks, as the vehicle to advance it. Each goal counts as one point.

There are, of course, rules of engagement.

At this point, Romulus unfortunately (and understandingly because it's a first-year sport at the high school) has a 0-13 record. Chris Anderson made history when he scored the first-ever goal against Rochester: Anderson has four goals and Dave Boyd, three, and they lead their team in that department.

Josh Cutliff, Charlie Smith, Brian Buerhle, and Sultan Sharieff also have scored for the Eagles in this their inaugural season.

Romulus came close to earning their first win when, against Avondale, they took a 1-0 lead. But Avondale came back and won 4-2.

"I'm very proud of our team. The guys learn something every day. They always play with heart and pride."

Kahler also pointed out that he usually has to remind team members that they should not be discouraged by setbacks.

"We have to remind ourselves that we started playing Lacrosse in March. None of the

Wayne finishes 2nd in girls' Mega-Red golf

Behind outstanding individual performances by Amber Henn and Kayla Slezak, Wayne Memorial finished second-best at the Mega Conference, Red Division girls' golf championships.

It was the best-ever finish for Coach Carolyn Newton's team. Wayne wrapped up the regular season with a 7-3 league record.

Monroe captured the 2001 Mega-Red Division crown with a perfect 10-0 mark. Trailing the Trojans in the final standings were Wayne (7-3), Dearborn (7-3), Ypsilanti (3-7), Belleville (3-7), and Southgate Anderson (0-10).

Playing at the Pine View Golf Course in Ypsilanti, Henn shot an 89 to lead the Zebras. She trailed tournament medalist, Monroe's Katie Little, who scored a tourney best 86.

Wayne's Kayla Slezak rounded the course with a 101. It was the seventh-best individual performance.

Henn and Slezak's efforts also earned them berths on the elite All-Mega-Red Conference team.

Slezak posted a 101 for her 18-holes and finished fifth in the field.

The top seven finishers in the division were awarded the designation of all-conference.

Slezak posted a 101 for her 18-holes and finished fifth in the field.

Wayne also counted the scores of Cindy Diehl (121), Lindsay Falow (126), Christina Youmans (136) and Becky Knight (139).

Named by the conference coaches to the All-Conference team are: Katie Little (Monroe - 86), Henn (Wayne - 89), Molly Spalding (Monroe - 90), Jenny Younglove (Monroe - 98), Kayla Slezak (Wayne - 101), Jenny Cravens (Dearborn - 101), and Brandi Smith (Dearborn - 101).

Dawson drills his first HR

It was the first inning and Brandon Dawson stepped to the plate. The young ball player was about to experience something that he had waited the season for: The Inkster High outfielder took a couple of pitches, then he saw a fastball that he liked and put his bat to it.

Dawson belted his first solo home run, sending a message to Fordson that the Vikings may be down, but they are not out.

"It was truly great," said Viking coach Jerome Orr who, with an 0-8 Mega-Gold record, has had little to smile about this year. "When Dawson's bat met the ball, you knew it was going."

Where the ball went was over the centerfielder's head and immediately put Inkster up 1-0 against a Fordson ball club that continues to battle for the divisional title.

Although dazed momentarily, Fordson came back and buried the Vikings 15-4.

Inkster's Kentrail Flicking was charged with the loss. He gave up seven hits to the Tractors, but four errors were costly and accounted for seven unearned runs. The senior righthander-struck out three and walked two.

The Vikings got a total of six hits, two of those by Mike Turner. Jason Orr also laced a run-scoring double.

Weather permitting, the Vikings were scheduled to square off with natural rival, Robichaud, on Wednesday in the season's Mega-Gold finale for both schools.

The Vikings will bring the curtains down to the 2001 season on Thursday when Detroit Community Arts pays Inkster a visit.

Storm delays Mega-Conference title showdown

Wayne is still 'alive'

Monday's tornadoes and torrential rains may have wiped out Wayne Memorial's 1-0 lead over Carlson and the game, but it didn't stop Wayne's bid for a conference baseball title.

Coach Tom Wakefield and his Zebras remain focus on their goal and are "alive" in the race for the divisional championship.

That goal, according to the Wayne coach, is to win the Mega-Conference baseball title.

"We're still alive in this thing," said Wakefield, Monday evening after the rains dissipated. "There is a three-way tie for first place in our division. We have to play Taylor Kennedy in one of those 'must' games. We win, we're 'in'; we lose, it's history."

A victory over Carlson would have enhanced Wayne's chances, however. The rains created a wait-and-see situation. Two-innings in to the game and with the Zebras up, 1-0, and pitcher Ryan Ybarra in control, the rains came.

"There was no way that we could continue. We'll probably have to reschedule it."

On Friday, Wayne trounced Wyandotte, 6-2, behind Adam Zimmerman's one-hitter. The Zebras trailed until the sixth when they tilted the scoreboard for all of their six runs.

In that turnaround inning, Marc Townsend led off with a grounder that was misplayed by the infield. Townsend then stole second and third and was doubled home by Jose Sabino.

Sabino moved to third when Greg Laws also got aboard on an error. With runners at first and third, Jim Barter belted a sacrifice fly that drove in the tying run. Adam See got on as the Bruins' defense inexplicably collapsed under pressure. Wyandotte committed its third error of the inning.

Chris Montoya came through for the Zebras with a single to right that scored the go-ahead run and, when Pat Barter drilled a triple down the right field line, Wayne moved out in front with a 5-2 lead.

Zimmerman then helped his own cause with a single that drove in the sixth run of the inning, his team's final run of the game.

Zimmerman, who went the distance, twirled a three-hitter, struck out nine and walked two for the win.

Wayne split a doubleheader with highly-touted Garden City last week as the Zebras dropped the opener 6-4 and came back to win the nightcap by a 4-1 margin.

Against Allen Park, Wayne blew a 6-1 lead and fell, 9-8, as the Jaguars rallied for seven runs in their fifth.

Jammed atop of the conference standings at the beginning of the week were Allen Park, Taylor Kennedy and Wayne Memorial.

"We have a chance to win this outright and this is the week that will tell," said Wakefield.

In the meantime, Wayne also has an important date to play natural rival, Westland John Glenn, to determine whose season will end and which of the two Wayne-Westland schools will represent the school district at the district playoffs.

John Glenn has been designated as a host school for a district, which will be played state-wide on June 2.

The two teams will meet at 3:30 p.m. on Tuesday at John Glenn in a pre-district qualifier. The winner will complete the playoff four-some which also includes Garden City, Livonia Franklin, and Livonia Churchill.

EMU plans a 'special day' for Romulus football fans

The football season can't be that far away with announcements such as the one from Eastern Michigan University proclaiming that school officials at the Ypsilanti-based university are planning a "Romulus Day" for their season's opener.

EMU is sponsoring the special day for Romulus High students and Eagle fans, on Sept. 1, the 2001 season's opener.

Matt Lucas, Assistant Athletic Director, earlier this year met with Romulus School District officials and explained that all Romulus High students would receive free admission to the 6 p.m. game against Southeast Missouri State. Also, anyone accompanying the students would pay only half the ticket price or $5.50.

Romulus has had a close working relationship with Eastern Michigan University for some time, and Romulus recently had 18 former students recognized on the 3.5 and above Dean's List, a EMU press release states.

EMU also will have the services of All-Area, All-Conference football stars Sam Estes, Daniel Jarrett, Michael Woods, Chris Talley, Myron Mosby, John Western and Ray Graves this season. The '7' remarkable players were awarded scholarships and will be beginning their careers at EMU this fall.

Lucas said he is very positive and enthusiastic about the 'Romulus Day' program. He pointed out that corporate sponsors will pick up the tab for the free tickets offered to the Romulus High students.

"This event will provide a quality experience for Romulus students to visit the Eastern Michigan campus and cheer on some of their former football heroes," Lucas noted.

The Romulus Eagles, under head football coach Wade Cook finished with a perfect 9-0 record a year ago. Cook took over the program last year after EMU hired former Romulus Coach Mark Woodson as an assistant coach.

Over the past three years, Cook and Woodson have managed to win 25 of their 27 games and have won Mega-Blue and Mega-Gold championships.

With Romulus talent in its lineup, EMU is working to duplicate Romulus' incredible record on the gridiron.

Nationally-ranked Westland is off to fast softball start

By TOM MOORADIAN
MCN Staff Writer

Westland's nationally-ranked softball club, LDJ/Varsity/Easton, didn't disappoint their fans or taint their pre-season ranking as they won the season's opening softball tournament staged last week in Harrison, Ohio.

Manager Larry Quartuccio's ball club captured the Bud-Lite Louisville Slugger Men's USSSA Class AA National Invitational title.

And, in winning the tournament, Westland clinched a berth in the USSSA Class A World Series which will be staged Aug. 17-19 in Kansas City.

"One of the highlights in the tournament was that we defeated the USSSA 2000 World Series champions and also the runners-up," Quartuccio said. "Maroadi's is the USSSA 2000 Class A World Champions. If you recall they also won the Leonard J. Anderson tournament in Wayne a year ago.

"This is definitely a great way to start our season."

Sam Gatto's two-run homer in the third lifted Westland to a 12-6 victory over Red's/J & J in the opening round of the tournament in Harrison, Ohio. Teammate Ron Lukaski missed hitting for "the cycle" when he failed to get a roundtripper.

Westland slugger Jason Riggs started the season with three singles and two RBIs, while Todd Wallace collected three hits, including a homer.

Against Mountain Top, it took a sensational catch by Kyle Cowart to preserve a 7-4 Westland victory. With two-away in the bottom of the seventh and bases loaded, Cowart went up on the centerfield fence and reached over to make a catch that robbed the batter of a 'grand slam' and saved the game for the Westlanders.

Cowart came back against Maroadi's and blasted a grand slam of his own to lead LDJ/Varsity/Easton to an impressive 23-16 victory. Chad Trudell also chipped in six RBIs on four hits, including a homer and double.

Pat Wayne, Bruce Wood, and Bob Stewart each doubled in a three-hit apiece afternoon.

Mountain Top came back and avenged their loss, 16-15, as Westland wasted Trudell's three homers and five RBIs. In the loss, Gatto also connected for two roundtrippers and five RBIs.

In the decisive rematch for the championship, it was Westland that prevailed. But barely. The Westlanders walked off the diamond with a 13-12 win over the Mountain Top as the champs scored eight runs in the sixth inning that was ignited by home runs from Chris Scheffer, Wood and Trudell.

Wayne to offer tennis programs

ty Center, 4635 Howe Road.

teams we play are that young in the sport. For us to get out there and play is a victory in itself."

At a school where basketball is king - the Eagles have produced such hoop greats as Johnny Long, Terry Mills and Grant Long - all NBA stars or former stars; and where football has become the "in" sport in recent years, Kahler says that Lacrosse is a sport of intrigue and adventure and predicts a great future for the sport.

"The kids love it. Our fans are great," said Kahler. "When we played our first game, it sounded like it was a state championship. The parents have been awesome, and we really appreciate the support from the school board and athletic department."
